Admission Policy

The graduate school of Tokushima Bunri University promotes 'education and research' utilizing the characteristics of pharmacy, which is a fusion of the medical pharmaceutical and the basic pharmaceutical fields in research focusing on clinical subjects. Our courses allow students to obtain practical and advanced knowledge and techniques, which are well-documented by natural science. Through the training of problem solving/raising capabilities including creativity and judgment, students learn to be intellectually curious, motivated and original as researchers, as well as far-sighted and highly ethical as medical professionals. We train pharmacists who play leading roles as medical professionals in the pharmaceutical treatment on the medical front and researchers who assume central roles in the pharmaceutical development. Our goal is to produce highly trusted and respected professionals who can sincerely serve to the well-being of humankind and contribute to the development of the local community.

We are widely accepting applications from students and professionals who agree to our vision and our curriculum.

Personal information provided during the application process will only be used for the entrance examination, instruction materials after the enrollment and for statistics.

12 Other: ((2) and (3) apply only to foreign students)

(1) Please consult with the student support group after the enrollment for the Scholarship of Japan Student Services Organization.

Foreign students who are interested in this scholarship can consult with the international communication group in the Tokushima Campus (Phone: 81-88-602-8001).

(2) As a general rule, after the enrollment and school fees are paid, the school will issue an enrollment permit. Prior to the enrollment procedures, candidates must obtain a visa (study abroad) according to the 1st attachment of "Emigration and Immigration Management and Refugee Recognition Law". The school will apply for the resident eligibility (student visa) on behalf of students.

(3) Resident eligibility will be determined by the Japanese Ministry of Justice, and we are not responsible for rejection of the request.
